From Your precepts I get understanding; Therefore I hate every false way. Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. I have sworn and I will confirm it, That I will keep Your righteous ordinances. I am exceedingly afflicted; Revive me, O LORD, according to Your word. O accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, And teach me Your ordinances. My life is continually in my hand, Yet I do not forget Your law.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PASTOR: The God who created us and knows our every weakness is also the God who redeems us. With confidence let us confess the sins that separate us from God and one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

ALL: Mighty and merciful God, forgive us. We are so easily swayed by advertisements, magazine articles and TV shows that tell us "me" is important. We eagerly look for ways to improve what the media say, and we believe, are our external flaws — failing to remember that we're a part of your creation and that all you created is good. Our focus is on appearance, whether it's how we look or what we own. We go into debt trying to fulfill our material desires and to impress others, forgetting what is truly of value. In the process, we judge others for what they have or don't have, failing to see them as your children. Help us turn our attention away from ourselves and toward others. Guide us in using our talents and money wisely and in ways that honor you. May we live our lives in a way that demonstrates that you are our heart's desire. Amen.

WORDS OF PARDON

PASTOR: The psalmist reminds us that the Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. God's anger does not last forever, nor does God deal with us according to our sins. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is God's steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far God removes our transgressions from us. Thanks be to God!
