IN UNISON

<sup>11</sup> And his gifts were that some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, <sup>12</sup> to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup> until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ; <sup>14</sup> so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the cunning of men, by their craftiness in deceitful wiles. <sup>15</sup> Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, <sup>16</sup> from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every joint with which it is supplied, when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love.

In life and in death, Jesus spoke seven final words statements that have much to teach us about Jesus, his Father, and ourselves:

- My God, Why Have You Forsaken Me?
- Today You Will Be with Me in Paradise,
- I Thirst,
- It Is Finished,
- Into Your Hands I Commit My Spirit.

Explore with us, these final words as seen and heard through the eyes and ears of those who stood near the cross beginning on Ash Wednesday, February 22, at 6 PM in the McMillen Room as we will begin this study (the Imposition of the Ashes will be at this time) - continue with us on Sundays & Wednesdays on this road to Easter.
