Some Things Still Need to Be Said

Acts 2:1-13 (NASB)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came from heaven a noise like a violent rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire distributing themselves, and they rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.

Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven. And when this sound occurred, the crowd came together, and were bewildered because each one of them was hearing them speak in his own language. They were amazed and astonished, saying, "Why, are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we each hear them in our own language to which we were born? Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya around Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—we hear them in our own tongues speaking of the mighty deeds of God." And they all continued in amazement and great perplexity, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others were mocking and saying, "They are full of sweet wine."

Many: Spirit of God, you come to us as a powerful wind—but we have shut the door and bolted it, to try to keep you out. You descend on us as tongues of fire—But we run away, afraid.

You give us gifts beyond our ability—but e squander them, hide them, we say “Not today,” or “How can one person make a difference?” or “No, Lord, not me.”

On this day of Pentecost, forgive our feebleness. Break open the doors of resistance, Let the fire of your Spirit dance within each of us. And give us courage and faith to claim your call for our lives. In Jesus’ name, Amen.
