

Today's Scripture

Romans 13:8-9

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

Romans 12:14-19

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone. If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord.

In the name of Christ Jesus, we welcome you to the First United Methodist Church of Arroyo Grande and to this service of worship. We are all so happy that you have joined us here today. Your presence is a gift and we hope that you will find our worship meaningful and that you come worship with us again.

If it is your first time with us, our Ushers have a gift for you in the Narthex and hope that you will join us for goodies in our fellowship hall so that we can get to know you. We hope to see you again soon!

We invite you to fill out the pew pad as it is passed and give us a record of your attendance. If you have any special concerns or needs that this congregation is to be aware of, or you have a need to see the Pastor, please don't hesitate to let us know. You can either write it in the pew pad or fill out the prayer card in the pew in front of you and place it in the offering plate as it passes. Contact our church office at the phone numbers and e-mail listed on the back of this bulletin. We praise God that you are here with us today!

All: O God, on this day devoted to the living memory of the martyrs of the church and to the celebration of the witness of loved ones and friends, we confess that we have mixed feelings. Recalling the faithfulness and courage of Christian men and women who risked, and often sacrificed, their very lives in your Son's service both inspires us and makes us feel wistful. We know we do not measure up to them, but we feel that we should -- and that we might have, except for bad breaks or the interference of others.

Most patient God, help us put an end to this self-deception. Help us to forget what we might have been, what we might have done. Remind us that even the most conspicuous martyrs of the church, even the bravest saints we have known and loved, were ordinary people, subject to the same mixed feelings about their own worth and potential. Then help us concentrate on the present and the future: on the things we might yet do, the persons we might yet be, in Christ's service, beginning today. Amen.. broken and are powerless to change it. We need your mercy. We want to be made whole and new. We ask for your forgiveness and for you to do in us and for us what we cannot. Amen.

ALL: Holy God, we thank you for equipping us through your Word to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ. It is our desire to hear your Word, receive it and respond to it in obedience.
