

Romans 13:8-14

Love for One Another

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, 'You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet'; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

An Urgent Appeal

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; let us live honourably as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Matthew 18:15-20

Reproving Another Who Sins

'If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax-collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.

A fundraiser for the Chancel Choir trip to sing at Carnegie Hall

From the Pastor

I am glad to see the progress unfold as Chuck Ashton heals from a femur injury sustained a month ago, on May 21st when he tripped in the storage room off Criswell Hall. I am grateful for the immediate response of those present to get him medical attention rapidly.

We celebrate the hard work of food distribution and the faithful service of Chuck and Betty who for a decade have given time, talent and service in bringing gifts of food (and socks!) to so many individuals and families in need. Their self-giving in this ministry has always been amazing. It's a lot of hard, hard work.

On a Sunday morning just before Annual Conference, Betty let me know that due to Chuck's injury and ongoing rehabilitation they will no longer be heading up this Food Giveaway and the Saturday bi-annual Giveaway. We applaud their dedicated service for all these years and as a congregation we will create ongoing ministries to serve the hungry and the poor. We thank the Ashtons for all they have given and accomplished.

We continue to pray for Chuck's recovery and for Betty and the family. We will find an appropriate time to celebrate this successful ministry and its volunteers when Chuck is more able to navigate. Thank you Chuck, Betty and all your wonderful volunteers for serving so well. Stay tuned.
