UMM will meet on Saturday, September 20th at the Mission Inn of Pismo Beach located at 4th Street and James Way. Beginning at 8:30 AM, our featured speaker this month will be our Pastor David Burgeson who will entertain and educate us with highlights of his vacation to the southeastern United States. (Notably his trip to the Upper Room, Nashville, Tennessee.)

Mark your Calendar!!! All Church Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, September 21 from 8:30 AM until 10:00 AM in Criswell Hall.

Thank you to the members of the Endowment Board and to our Church family who joined together to benefit the nursery and our children's center in providing time, space and the money to build a soft play space for our future toddler play structure. We are so grateful and pray that God will bless you for your giving spirit.

Are You Planning to Attend the Camp AG Groundbreaking on September 27? – Planning to BBQ right after the ceremony also? Please e-mail or call camp AG at 489-2119 or e-mail umcampag@juno.com. RSVP is required for the BBQ. Thanks!

The Youth Group will host a food booth at the Arroyo Grande Harvest Festival - September 26th & 27th. As outreach, we will hand out free water bottles. This is not just an effort to quench the physical thirst. It is also an invitation to visit our church to quench the spiritual thirst for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We hope many will come see what we at UMC of AG is all about. At this time we would like to invite our church family to help in several ways...donating water, time and money for the cause. Contact the church office or Mike and Linda Herber and see what way you can help with this special outreach!

The Arroyo Grande United Methodist Children's Center looking for two teachers/primary caregivers. We desire applicants that are educated (15+ ECE units); who have had experience working with 1.5-5 year-olds in a childcare setting; and who are enthusiastic about working with children! Fax resume to 481 – 2693. Part-time/full time positions are available.
