1 Samuel 16:1-12

Now the LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve over Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have selected a king for Myself among his sons.” But Samuel said, “How can I go? When Saul hears of it, he will kill me.” And the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’ You shall invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for Me the one whom I designate to you.” So Samuel did what the LORD said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him and said, “Do you come in peace?” He said, “In peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. When they entered, he looked at Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is before Him.” But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for God sees not as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.” Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.” Next Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.” Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen these.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are these all the children?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and behold, he is tending the sheep.” Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.”

So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is he.”

David: From Shepherd to King

I. David is chosen as king. I Samuel 16—17

A. God saw David with the potential of a king. Psalm 78:70—72

1. David was fully engaged in caring for his sheep.
2. David protected and rescued his sheep from danger.
3. David, most importantly, was a man after God's own heart.

B. Others did not see David with the potential of a king.

1. Jesse, David's father, did not even summon David when Samuel came to anoint a new king.
2. David's older brother scolded David for leaving the sheep to some and watch the battle with the Philistines.
3. King Saul viewed David as a mere boy not king material.
4. Goliath called David "a stick" before David killed him.

C. Jonathan, Saul's son and successor to the throne, saw David with the potential of a king (I Samuel 18:4, Jonathan gives David his royal robe).

II. David goes into "boot camp" to be trained as a king.

- A. Saul, who is hostile to David, is God's tool to train David in godly, kingly character.
- B. David lives as a fugitive, depending on God for guidance and help.
- C. After 14 years of training, David is ready to represent God and God's character and he is inaugurated as king over Israel.

III. David, as king, points to "the One" who will come as the Messiah (Jesus).

- A. David and Jesus are of the same tribe and city.
- B. David was anointed with oil; Jesus was anointed with the Spirit. ("anointed one" is the same as "messiah.")
- C. Other parallels to Jesus in The Story so far.
 1. Jesus is the Passover Lamb (Exodus).
 2. Jesus and Joshua mean the same: Savior.
 3. Jesus is the ultimate "deliverer" (Judges).
 4. Jesus is the Redeemer (Ruth).
 5. Goliath called David "a stick" before David killed him.
