Bible In 90 Days begins January 1, 2013 A study for Adults, Youth, & Children

There's so much that God wants to teach us, and it's all waiting in the pages of His Holy Word. Don't pass up this opportunity to join our all church challenge to read the Bible in 90 Days. Do this every day, and you'll be amazed at how much you grow in your walk with the Lord. If you desire to strengthen your relationship with Christ, there is no better way than reading the Bible every day. The BEST New Year's resolution you will ever make—AND KEEP!

THREE COMPONETS FOR OUR JOURNEY THRU THE BIBLE:

- 1. Use list provided to read about 12 pages of scripture per day. →
- 2. Attend ONE weekly Bible study focused on the week's reading.
- 3. Attend Sunday services to hear Pastor David's sermon focused on the Biblical character from the Bible In 90 Days week's reading.

Shepherd's Notes

David Burgeson, Pastor

Dear Church Family and Friends,

I want to thank you for the ways, both seen and unseen, that you have served the First United Methodist Church. As the New Year approaches, be sure to take some time and reflect on how we have shared the good news of Jesus Christ through word and deed.

For 2013, we can continue sharing of Christ with several goals that I pray we will have in place by the end of the first quarter—end of March. I hope to:

- 1. Discover and implement ways to increase our Sunday worship attendance by 10% by the end of 2013. Average attendance at the end of 2012 was 157.
- 2. Develop a Congregational and Membership Care Team. This group will work along with me to visit our shut-in members and those who have not been to church for 3 Sundays.
- 3. Conduct a "What It Means To Be A United Methodist" class each quarter. This class would be for any and all who are new to our church or for those who would like to know more about our church structure.
- 4. Begin a monthly potluck gathering for singles. This would be a great time of food and fellowship. We can consider planning outings as well.
- 5. Have a membership and constituent data base active and running in our church office. I would like this to be fully in place by the end of January. We are in process of this now and ask that if you have not completed an information form for you or your family, that you do so and send it to our church office as soon as possible. You will find a blank form insert in this issue. Please complete it in as much as you can so we have this information for our directories, our attendance files, and our membership information. Please note "membership information" on the envelope.
- 6. Our Finance Team will share a detailed report with you each quarter as to where we are in our income and expenses. The first of which will be ready at the end of March.
- 7. Utilizing social media as a means of sharing information about our church.

I will keep you all updated in the Sunday morning bulletins and our future Cast~A~Net issues. Please let me know if any of these teams, groups and functions are something that you would like to be involved in or help to implement.

God bless you all and Happy New Year!

Congratulations to Jed Moore on completing his Eagle Scout Project!

The beautiful shade structure in the back yard over the sand box is being enjoyed by the children and staff of our preschool and Sunday School.

Many of us were introduced to Epiphany through the familiar silhouetted-image of Three Wise Men bearing gifts as they followed the Great Star by night. In some cultures, Epiphany is known as the Day of the Kings (Dia de los Reyes). It is also known as Twelfth Day or Twelfth Night, reflecting an old custom of giving a gift for each of the days from December 25 to January 6 for the 12 days of Christmas. The day has special meaning for a number of reasons. Several branches of Christianity celebrate the birth of the Christ Child on January 6 (or 1/7).

Epiphany means appearance or manifestation. Popular usage likens epiphany to words such as eureka or aha! Use of this word by some English speakers conjures images of having a light bulb turned on, or of being able to see something that was once hidden from view. The texts for the Sundays after the Epiphany dramatize the many ways that we people came to understand who Jesus was, through his baptism, the miracle at the wedding, or through that bodacious declaration in his hometown synagogue! But, this everwidening circle of revelation began 'outside the circle' of Judaism, so to speak, with the Magi.

Who were the Magi?

Many versions of the Bible refer to them as the Wise Men. We often forget that these Magi or Wise Men were non-Jews. Older sources suggest that they were priestly descendants of one of the tribes of the Medes known for their knowledge of the stars (astronomy) and their ability to interpret dreams.

What can we learn from the Wise Men?

First, the Wise Men began their journey because of their beliefs. It was a common belief that when a world leader like a king was born that a special stellar phenomenon would appear in the sky. The Magi saw something that convinced them that they had seen the longawaited sign. Historians tell us that the Jews, the Romans, and the Persians were all watching the skies about that time, looking for signs of the birth of an extraordinary king. A few years before, around 11 BC, Halley's Comet had been seen. There were other stellar phenomena, including a bright star, Sirius, which appeared brightly in the daytime instead of at night. The Wise Men saw the star and began their journey.

Second, the Wise Men were willing to follow what they saw into unknown territory. Their journey took them outside their country and their comfort zone.

The Wise Men risked the consequences of disobeying Herod, who was known to behave as a madman when provoked and returned to their country by another way.

Christian journey—often an off-road excursion.

Third, the Wise Men were committed to the journey -- wherever the star might lead. The Wise Men set out to find a newborn King by following a star and ended up in finding a baby born to young, relatively poor parents! Not exactly what they expected and not exactly what befit their dignity as priests.

In this coming year, may we look to heaven for guidance and comfort and may we accept God's blessings in whatever forms we find them, just as the Wise Men accepted that their long, expensive journey led them to a baby born to young, inexperienced parents who lived on the poor side of town.

Finally, the Wise Men brought gifts. They did the thing that people in the East or in Africa or in India would do when visiting royalty. They brought gifts.

- Gold—a gift that you brought to a king.
- Frankincense—the gift for a priest.
- Myrrh—given to someone about to die.

On This Twelfth Day, or Three Kings Day, otherwise known as Epiphany, think of the gift that you will offer to God in the coming year. The gift of time? The gift of your talents? Your service in the community? Your witness and testimony? The gift of undying love and devotion?

Their greatest gift comes to us in the form of a realization. The Wise Men were the first Gentiles to recognize that Jesus belongs to everyone. Good news is for everyone, not just a select few.

Star of wonder, Star of light,
Star with royal beauty bright.
Westward leading, Still proceeding,
Guide us to thy perfect light. Amen.

Helping men grow in Christ; so others may know Christ!

United Methodist Women's Sunday January 27

Be sure to mark your calendar and plan to be in church on January 27th for United Methodist Women's Sunday. Our speaker for both services will be Dr. Veda Ward. Veda was the leader of last year's UMW Spiritual Growth Retreat, and was such an exciting presenter that she has been invited back so that the whole congregation could hear her!

Dr. Ward is a recent graduate of the Claremont School of Theology's "Lay Ministry Academy." A professor of Recreation and Tourism Management at California State, Northridge, she is currently the President of the Los Angeles County Commission for Women. This will also be the time for the installation of the new officers for the UMC of AG United Methodist Women. Following the morning's service there will be a potluck luncheon.

We hope you will join us!

Arroyo Grande United Methodist Women Donate $2,535 to Local Charities

During the year 2012 the United Methodist Women raised approximately $6,800 thru pledges and fundraisers. Sixty percent of the funds raised are sent to the UMW Cal Pac Conference for distribution to mission projects that serve women and children around the world. Forty percent is designated for local programs. This year, for the local projects, the UMW steering committee has designated $750 to the People's Kitchen; $750 to the Five Cities Christian Women's Food Pantry; $550 to the Grover Beach Elementary School; and $485 to the African Water Well project.

The UMW wishes to extend a great Thank You to all who supported the recent Holiday Boutique and Elegant Luncheon. Approximately $3,150 was raised from the sale of crafts and the luncheon. The sale of opportunity tickets for the antique quilt made $997.

United Methodist Women Book Club

For more than 140 years members of United Methodist Women and predecessor organizations have been involved in mission that includes prayer, study and action. The Reading Program is a study opportunity for United Methodist Women. Hopefully it should also lead to action. It is always helpful to read a good book about an important subject but it is so much more meaningful when one can discuss the book with others.

Our Arroyo Grande UMW has now been reading and discussing together for over a year. All agree that the books have been interesting, thought provoking and have expanded our knowledge about situations around the world.

You are invited to join us on the fourth Thursday of the month for a lively discussion! The next meeting will be on Thursday, January 24th at 4 PM.

The book for January is entitled "Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide."

"This is a passionate call to arms against the oppression of women around the globe-"the central moral challenge" of our time. Through inspiring stories of extraordinary women, Kristof and WuDunn show that the most effective way to fight global poverty is to unleash the potential of women. They also offer an uplifting do-it-yourself tool kit for those who want to help."

It's that time of year again and starting in January, the youth will be collecting food for the Soup-er Bowl of Caring. Please look for the bucket in Criswell and deposit cans and non-perishable items (especially needed is tuna, peanut butter, and cereal). Our touchdown for victory date is February 3 when we will have our final collection. On that day if you forget to bring something to put in our bucket to score a goal to help hunger in our community, we will gladly sell you a canned item to donate. All food collected will be given to the Five Cites Christian Women's Food Bank. All money collected will go to support Blandy, the Compassion International child the youth supports.

Sundays - 10:30 AM Wednesdays - 7 PM

Join these 6th-12th grade teens living for Christ (room 215).

Thanks for your support, Mike and Linda

Eleven Tips for Responding to Children's Fears and Concerns Following a Disaster from GBOD.org

Parents, grandparents, teachers and caregivers are the key to helping children work through their feelings following a disaster.

- 1. Pray with children for the victims of the disaster—hear how they pray and what they are praying for. Simple prayers, like: Dear God, help and bless the people who lived through the storm. Guard them all with your care. Amen.
- 2. Discuss openly with children what your family and church are doing to help those who have been hurt by the disaster.
- 3. Limit trauma by protecting children from ongoing media images of the disaster that may only contribute to fear and helplessness. Limit exposure to continuing news stories and hold adult conversations only when children are not present.
- 4. Reassure children as you listen to their fears. Children experience the same feelings as adults, so it is important and reasonable to validate their feelings while keeping a positive future orientation.
- 5. Contact organizations in your area that address the needs of children.
- 6. Provide structure through routine and activity. Routines and activities help regain a sense of control when all else feels out of control.
- 7. Make objects that encourage play reenactment of the images children observe during and after a disaster.
- 8. Let children draw pictures or journal about the disaster. Ask children to draw or write whatever comes to their minds, or give them a question or topic to draw about. Create a group mural or collage that illustrates the images children have seen. Follow up with a discussion with a parent or small group.
- 9. Group discussions are helpful for validating children's feelings about the images they see or the conversations they hear about the disaster. Most importantly, end the discussion on a positive note by assuring children of God's love. Scripture, like "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" from Psalm 46 is one example of scripture that can bring children comfort.
- 10. Develop a family disaster plan for the types of natural disasters that may happen in your area. Role-play some possible situations. Knowing that you are prepared will help children cope with fears that they may find themselves separated from family in the event of a disaster.
- 11. Do good. Doing good for others help children overcome the sense of powerlessness. For example, let children help purchase and assemble health kits, layettes or flood buckets. (See http://new.gbgm-umc.org/umcor/getconnected/supplies/flood-bucket for information on how to assemble kits.)

Children's Ministry Director☆ Kid's Night Out continuesEVERY Wednesday at 6 PM.

- Christmas Nativity Program turned out so wonderful. MANY thanks to all those who participated in making this special for our church and for others.
- New January and February Kids Calendar is out. Find me for details any Sunday.

- 2) COVENANT MISSIONARY: FRIDO KINKOLENGE:
 He is serving as Director of Children's Ministries in the Liberian Annual Conference and Emk Weltmission Children's Project Manager in Liberia. A copy of his bio is in a folder on our bulletin board.

- 3) LENT BEGINS FEBRUARY 13 WITH ASH WEDNESDAY:
 Did you create a "Sparkly Box" during Advent. If so, we want you to share your list of ways that you showed the love of Jesus as a witness to others.
 Please give them to me on Sunday or leave in the church office. I would like to compile a list that shows the ways we show God's love and put it alongside the special giving we do. Some might be part of both lists, that is all right. I would like to challenge us during Lent to take on some ministry of Love that might be included on our list. We often "give up" something for Lent, why not accept a challenge to "add a Justice Ministry of some kind".
- 4) MISSION TEAM NEWS: We have been encouraged to participate in mission outreach in some way. Many of you have been as you can see by looking at the Special Giving Chart. The Mission Team wants to look for new ways be in mission outreach. Please share your ideas with us! GOD HAS NO HANDS BUT OURS.
- 5) CLEAN WATER FOR ALL: On February 24th the Mission Team will host a potluck followed by pictures from Africa shared by Patti and Dick Melsheimer. We will take a freewill offering to be added to our Water Bore Hole Well campaign. We already have a start. I know I appreciate my clean water and I expect you do also. Let's help others have the same for their families.

6) Here are the first eleven month's totals for 2012. Thank you for your faithfulness You have blessed many others locally and around the world.

7) ALTERNATIVE CHRISTMAS: If you missed the big event on that Sunday, don't worry—you still can give. Your gift can also be a way of honoring someone or in remembrance of someone. We have cards for you to pick up when you make a donation if this is your desire. Cards at the table by the Mission Team Bulletin Board in Criswell Hall. Your options this year continue to be our three local ministries: 5 Cities Christian Women, People's Kitchen, and South County Food Bank. The national ministries are thru UMCOR's Disaster Response. The International project is our current Bore Well Project for Africa. We ask that you pray about what you can do to be in ministry with others.

Many hands can do many things!

UMC of AG's People's Kitchen Team

serves hot meals to our community at the Shouts of Grace Church in Grover Beach on the 1st & 3rd Thursday of each month. At 11:30 AM, the team leaves from UMC of AG ready to shine for Christ. To help, see the Ashtons.

Always In Need Of: CLEAN seasonal clothes, travel-sized toiletries. bedding, towels, oral hygiene supplies (tooth brushes & toothpaste, etc.), new socks, and people to make casseroles—we supply the ingredients.

Contact the Ashtons for details.

Thank you all for your support in Sock Sunday. On behalf of the needy that we serve, you are a blessing!

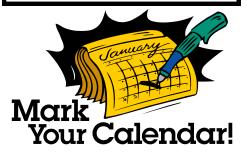

- We are 1 or 2 percent over budget. The repair of the sewer system set us back but doable. As of the end of October the Parsonage Fund stood at $127,708. This represented a $600 increase. The 2013 budget request is asking for a $4,000 increase. All utilities are going up.
- We are still discussing the vacant lot and a little park area looks good. I listed 7 projects that are still outstanding. I have received 2 quotes for the parking lot coating and have been helped by the Endowment Board. It doesn't cover all of the costs but we might have another gift forthcoming. The sinks in the Children's Center(3) are all backing up. As it turned out, the drain line was busted and it cost $1,000 to fix that damage. Good-bye budget!
- Maybe after Christmas, I'd like to strip and wax the Pantry.

I don't like the phrase "Happy Holidays" so the entire Board of Trustees wishes all a beautiful CHRISTMAS and a joyous New Year. God Bless.

Wednesdays - 9AM

Join us as we clean-up our house of worship—Come, and spruce up this House of the Lord; there is always something to do and places that need work.

Come, contribute as you are able—all are welcome!

Tim & Juji Boyle Will Visit UMC of Arroyo Grande—February 9

Potluck at 5 PM (BRING A DISH TO SHARE)

The Boyles are missionaries with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church assigned to teach at Kwansei Gakuin University in Nishinomiya, Japan.

Today affiliated with the United Church of Christ in Japan (Kyodan), the university was founded in 1889 under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The main campus is in Nishinomiya, with satellite schools in Sanda, Osaka City, and Toyko. Kwansei Gakuin has 24,000 students and recently merged with Seiwa College, which also had Methodist origins.

Tim has been a missionary professor at Kwansei Gakuin University in the Economics Department since September 2009. He teaches courses in Introduction to Christianity (focusing on the biblical worldview, how that has shaped world history, and how it addresses the issues of today), ethics, and English language. He still helps out at the Buraku Liberation Center, where he served for two years prior to beginning at Kwansei Gakuin.

Tim's wife, Yuko (Juji), is a medical counselor at a special home for the elderly in Kobe that is part of a larger ministry founded by Toyohiko Kagawa, a noted Japanese Christian leader and peace advocate.

The Buraku Liberation Center promotes the human and civil rights of a Japanese population subject to acute discrimination on the basis of blood lines. It is a Kyodan ministry founded in 1981.

Rev. Boyle first served in Japan as a lay missionary from 1971 to 1974 in Sapporo on the northern island of Hokkaido. After seminary and a four-year pastorate in California, the Boyles returned to Hokkaido for a term and then moved to Tsukuba Science City near Tokyo, where they served for 21 years at the Tsukuba Christian Center.

Tim and Juji are the parents of two adult daughters, Lisa Megumi and Jennifer Mari.

What is The Walk To Emmaus?

The Walk to Emmaus is a spiritual renewal program intended to strengthen the local church through the development of Christian disciples and leaders. The program's approach seriously considers the model of Christ's servanthood and encourages Christ's disciples to act in ways appropriate to being "a servant of all."

The Walk to Emmaus experience is a 72-hour short course in Christianity, comprised of fifteen talks by lay and clergy on the themes of God's grace, disciplines of Christian discipleship, and what it means to be the church. The course is wrapped in prayer and meditation, special times of worship and daily celebration of Holy Communion. The "Emmaus community," is made up of those who have attended an Emmaus weekend. The community supports the 72-hour experience with a prayer vigil, by preparing and serving meals, and other acts of love and selfgiving. The Emmaus Walk typically begins Thursday evening and concludes Sunday evening. Men and women attend separate weekends.

During and after the three days, Emmaus leaders encourage participants to meet regularly in small groups. The members of the small groups challenge and support one another in faithful living. Participants seek to Christianize their environments of family, job, and community through the ministry of their congregations. The three-day Emmaus experience and follow-up groups strengthen and renew Christian people as disciples of Jesus Christ and as active members of the body of Christ in mission to the world.

The Upper Room, a ministry unit of the General Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church, sponsors the Walk to Emmaus and offers it through local Emmaus groups around the world. Although connected through The Upper Room to The United Methodist Church, The Walk to Emmaus is ecumenical in nature. The intent is not to teach church doctrine, but rather to work within the common theology of the Christian faith and promote unity within the different Christian churches.
