Preschool drop off is in the backyard - Toddler drop off is in the courtyard
Group, Art, Choice Time, and Snack

Wednesday, June 18 and Thursday, June 19, 10:30 – 12:00

Group experience and outside play

Friday, June 20, 8:30 -10:00 or 10:30 -12:30

VISITING FAMILIES

Families who will be starting our program on June 30 are welcome to visit with your child two or three days of our visiting week. Please call the office at 481-2223 to schedule your visiting days and times.

PRESCHOOL TO PRE K

During this week, after your child puts his/her lunch away and you check your mailbox in your current classroom, then visit the Pre K classroom before dropping your child off in the backyard each morning. Talk with your child about things you notice in the Pre K Classroom and ask your child what he/she noticed. See attached sheet regarding Pre K and why is it different.

YOUNG 3'S TO PRESCHOOL

During this week, after your child puts his/her lunch away and you check your mailbox in your child's current classroom, then visit the preschool classroom before dropping your child off. Talk with your child about things you notice in the Preschool Classroom and ask your child what he/she noticed.

YOUNG TODDLERS TO VISIT THE OLDER CLASSROOM

During this week, after your child puts his/her lunch away and you check your mailbox in your child's current classroom, then visit the Older Toddler Classroom before dropping your child off. Talk with your child about things you notice in the Older Toddler Classroom and ask your child what he/she noticed. There will be no visiting days on Friday, June 20 for this group.

The staff looks forward to embracing, educating, and enhancing the lives of each child that joins our program.

Sincerely,

Maddy Quaglino,
Director of AGUMCC

Our mission statement is to embrace, educate, and enhance the future development of each child in our program.
