10:30 AM Order of Worship for 6 April 2014

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing,
but to us who are being saved
it is the power of God.

Worship is led by Lord's Crew

Welcome and News of the Church

Pastor David

Opening Praise Awesome God

✚ Scripture Reading Philippians 2:5-11.

In Unison

In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus; Who, being in the very nature of God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to His own advantage; rather, He made Himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to death even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted Him to the highest place and gave Him the Name that is above every name that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Prayer of Confession

Rev. Harold Headrick

One: Please join me in our Prayer of Confession:

ALL: Holy God, we do live in the joy and wonder of your love. However, we find it so easy to be in disagreement. We take each other for granted. So often we are tempted to cut the ropes of love that bind us together. We tend to turn away from those with whom we have disagreements. Help us, Lord, here today in this sermon notes week 20

- I. The dangerous character named Haman who “rolls the dice.”
 - A. During the exile many Jews are living in the capitol city of Susa in Persia and in the 127 provinces of Persia.
 - B. In Susa is a descendant of the Amalekites named Haman who hates the Jews, particularly a Jew named Mordecai.
 1. Saul was told to destroy the Amalekites, but disobeyed and the Amalekites were the first people to obstruct Israel from entering the Promise Land.
 2. Haman carried a grudge against the Jews and held a high position in the Persian Empire under King Xerxes.
 - C. Haman convinces Xerxes to decree the extermination of the Jews in all 127 provinces and whoever kills the Jews can keep the Jews’ possessions.
 - D. Haman casts lots (Hebrew pur and purim), that is, he rolls the dice to determine the day to kill the Jews. The dice come up Adar 13th (March).
- II. The courageous characters named Esther and Mordecai who try to save the Jews.
 - A. Esther, a Jewish girl, is selected as Queen after Queen Vashti is deposed for resisting King Xerxes call to appear (Esther 1; 2:12).
 - B. Mordecai, Esther’s cousin, convinces Esther to appeal to Xerxes to stop the genocide of the Jews. The appeal could lead to Esther’s life (Esther 4:14 and 16).
 - C. Xerxes receives Esther who devised a plan to reveal the evil plot of Haman.

- III. Haman is exposed and executed because of his evil plot to kill the Jews.
 - A. Xerxes cannot sleep and reads that Mordechai, a Jew, had saved him from a plot to assassinate the king.
 - B. Xerxes tells Haman he wants to honor a man and Haman thinks that the king has him in mind, not Mordecai.
 1. Xerxes asks Haman how a hero should be honored.
 2. Haman has to honor Mordecai by leading him as a hero through the city.
 - C. At a private dinner arranged by Esther, Haman is exposed as the one who seeks to have all Jews killed on Adar 13th and he is executed on the very gallows he had built to kill Mordecai.
- IV. Xerxes cannot revoke his decreed, but he does decree that the Jews can defend themselves on Adar 13th.
 - A. The Jews prevail and the Jews declare Adar 13th (our March 10th) as the Feast of Purim, the Festival of the Dice.
 - B. Mordecai is honored by taking Haman’s place as an official in the Empire and beautiful, courageous Esther continues as Queen.

Application:

- Proverbs 16:33 tells us that God controls the roll of the dice. God’s name is not mentioned in the Book of Esther, but his behind-the- scene presence guides all that seems to happen by “coincidence.”
- Colossians 2:16—17 tells Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of all Old Testament feasts, including Purim. We need not be afraid of anything.
- Name your fears...illness, aging, not enough money, loss of jobs, loss of home, family breakdown, being alone, wayward children, depression, death...whatever.
- Take a courageous stand, like Esther and Mordecai, knowing that life may look sometimes just like the “roll of the dice,” but God is behind the scenes working all things out for the good (Romans 8:28).
