The Story—Chapter 28: New Beginnings

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.² Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.³ They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them.⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Luke 3:16; John 7:37—39; Titus 3:5—6 In Unison

Luke 3:16 _____

John answered them all, “I baptize you with water. But one who is more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

John 7:37—39 _____

On the last and greatest day of the festival, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, “Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.” By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.

Titus 3:5—6 _____

He saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom He poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior,...

✠ Call To Worship

Colin Odom

* Please rise in body and/or spirit and join in the Call to Worship.

One: Great Spirit, come to us here and now.

Many: Come with mighty power; come with awesome strength.

One: Great Spirit, come into our lives our lives and come here between us.

Many: Come, so that we may be energized and renewed in your transforming love.

One: Great Spirit, renew us and renew your church.

Many: And may our celebration here together be a witness to all the world of God's continuing presence in our world.

* Please remain standing for our opening hymn.

AG UM CC

Grades K—6 are invited to go with the teachers to Sunday School upstairs in room 211 at this time. Nursery available.

Youth will be ushering and stay in service with parents.

Prayer of Confession

Colin Odom

* Please join me in our Prayer of Confession:

ALL: Mighty God of mercy, we thank you for the resurrection dawn, bringing the glory of our risen Lord, who makes every day new. Especially we thank you for the beauty of your creation. And the new creation in Christ and all the gifts of healing and forgiveness. We thank you for the sustaining love of family and friends and the fellowship of faith in your great church.

Merciful God of might, renew this weary world, heal the hurts of all your children, and bring your peace for all in Christ Jesus, the living Lord of life. We especially pray for those who mourn from the loss of friend or family member. We pray for those who govern the nations of the world. We lift up the people of countries where there is strife and hunger and warfare. We give thanks that all who work for peace and true justice. We pray that the joy and promise of Easter will grow stronger in our lives. All these prayers we offer in the name of the risen One. Amen.

New Beginnings

Pastor David M. Burgeson

✠ Affirmation of Faith

We believe in the one High God, who out of love created the beautiful world and everything good in it. He created humanity and wants us to be happy in the world. God loves the world and every nation and tribe on the earth. We have known this High God in the darkness, and now we know him in the light. God promised in the book of his word, the Bible, that he would save the world and all the nations and tribes.

We believe that God made good his promise by sending his Son, Jesus Christ, a man in the flesh, a Jew by tribe, born poor in a little village, who left his home and was always on safari doing good, curing people by the power of God, teaching about God and humanity, showing that the meaning of religion is love. He was rejected by his people, tortured and nailed, hands and feet, to a cross, and died. He lay buried in the grave, but the hyenas did not touch him, and on the third day, he rose from the grave. He ascended to the skies. He is the Lord.

We believe that all our sins are forgiven through him. All who have faith in him must be sorry for their sins, be baptized in the Holy Spirit of God, live the rules of love, and share the bread together in love, to announce the good news to others until Jesus comes again. We are waiting for him. He is alive. He lives. This we believe. Amen.

week 28

- I. The Book of Acts is the second of a two-book set written by Luke.
 - A. The Gospel of Luke describes the second phase: God finding his lost children through Jesus Christ.
 - B. The Book of Acts, written by Luke and addressed to the same person Theophilus, as his Gospel, describes the third phase: God finding his lost children through the church. Acts 1:8 is the theme verse of Acts.
- II. The disciples, 120 of them, wait in Jerusalem as Jesus commanded.
 - A. Why Jerusalem? Because the Day of Pentecost is approaching and about a million people will be in Jerusalem.
 - B. On the Day of Pentecost, the 120 disciples hear a mighty wind and are anointed with tongues of fire as the Holy Spirit is poured out upon them (Acts 2:1-4).
 - C. The 120 disciples become cross-cultural missionaries, speaking the wonderful works of God in the languages of the world (Acts 2:5-12).
 - 1. The people are amazed at the miracle of the languages.
 - 2. The burning question is: “What does this mean?” (Acts 2:12).
 - 3. The Lord-denying disciple, Peter, now filled with the Spirit, boldly declares the meaning of the events of Pentecost: Jesus is alive and he is Lord. Read Acts 2:14-36
 - D. Three thousand respond to Peter’s explanation by repenting, being baptized, and becoming the first people in the birth of the church. (Acts 2:37-41)
- III. The massive, diverse, multi-cultural crowd of 3000 believers becomes the unified community—the church. (Acts 2:42-47)
 - A. God is finding his lost children and creating a thriving family.
 - B. The diversity becomes astounding unity by the presence of the Spirit.

- 1. There are no singular pronouns in Acts 2:42-27.
- 2. The church is not a collection of saved individuals; it is a community living in the Spirit of God.

Illustration/Application:

Max Lucado tells about an Episcopal priest friend of his, Jim Foltz, who is bishop of his diocese. Jim came to a Good Friday service wearing a huge golden cross. Max was inwardly judgmental about Jim wearing the cross until Max heard the story behind it. Jim served many years in his congregation and when he became bishop, he had to leave the congregation he loved. The congregation loved Jim and donated gold items that could be melted down and molded into a cross. In Jim’s cross were melted wedding bands, a friend’s ring meant for his bride, rings from widows and widowers, golden add-on beads, even some crowns from teeth. Over 242 different contributions made up Jim’s huge, golden cross. Stories of peace and pain were forged into a cross binding them altogether. The bishop’s cross is a picture of the church. When we hold a hand in the hospital, when a conservative loves a liberal, when a Hispanic loves an Anglo and an Anglo loves an African-American, when the young respect the elderly and elderly love the young, a cross is forged and visible for the world to see.

- C. The new church met from house-to-house, eating meals together and using their homes as places of God’s love (Acts 2:46-47).
 - 1. The church spread into Judea and Samaria as Jesus commanded.
 - 2. Saul of Tarsus was converted and became a missionary to the nations in the far reaches of the world (Acts 9).

Application:

Did you know that a military general’s command remains in effect until he issues a new command? Jesus’ last command is Acts 1:8. We have a task.
