

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone's sins, their sins are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven." Now Thomas (also known as Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe." Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Then Jesus told him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed." Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

All: God, you are so patient with us. You have told us that if we have the faith of a mustard seed, we can move mountains and, yet, even that seems impossible for our doubting hearts. We have seen your miracles, we have experienced your work in our lives, and we still question you and hesitate to believe you are always good. Let us not so quickly forget the celebration we had last week and the truth of the resurrection. Give us faith to believe you, Father. Amen.

One: Please join me in our prayer for illumination:

All: We confess that there are times, when we come to the reading of your Word we consider it a time to let our minds wander. We admit that sometimes we listen and immediately think the Scripture reading is clearly meant for someone else. We acknowledge that we fall short of listening with open minds and open hearts. Grant us the patience and discipline to listen to what you say to us in the reading of your word. Amen.
