

1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts,—brothers and sisters,— I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says ‘Let Jesus be cursed!’ and no one can say ‘Jesus is Lord’ except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, ‘They have no wine.’ And Jesus said to her, ‘Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.’ His mother said to the servants, ‘Do whatever he tells you.’ Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, ‘Fill the jars with water.’ And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, ‘Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.’ So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, ‘Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.’ Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Rev. Mike Eggleston has a long history as a pastor on the Central Coast, having served for 10 years at St Andrew UMC of Santa Maria, followed by 7 years at Trinity: Los Osos. He retired to Los Osos in 2013 after following Rev.
Mary Birgelaitis as pastor of Whittier First. He presently assists at Trinity as volunteer
"Minister of the Environment," and is a board member of "People of Faith for Justice." Mike thinks this will be his third and fourth times (over 25 years) in preaching at AGUMC.

HUMAN RELATIONS SUNDAY
TODAY, JANUARY 17, 2016

This special Sunday celebrates the connectional work of United Methodist Churches.

Human Relations Day is our day to celebrate every person's potential to do great things.
It's our day to empower those living in the margins of society.
It's our day to invest in at-risk youth.
It's our day to make a difference together.

The Human Relations Day offering supporting these ministries is on the Sunday before the national observance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday.
